Young Writer Award

Thank you to all of you who took part in the Wicked Young Writer Awards. What an imaginative bunch you are! Did you see your story displayed near the Year 6 corridor?

Unfortunately, because of social distancing measures, this year's Wicked Young Writer Awards, including the finalists' ceremony at the Apollo theatre in June, have had to be cancelled.

The stories will be judged next year in time for the 2021 Awards and will be judged separately from next year's competition entries - by that time you could even have a story in each final!

Sparkling Science!

Conducting the fireworks in a glass science experiment.

By GR (Class 3B)

Our Lady of May Altar

Our Lady of May, please keep everyone in my school safe! I picked these beautiful flowers for Mary! They smell gorgeous. I made my altar using stones and shells I picked up on a beach in Italy last summer.

(Class 1G)

Garden Design

TC's garden project!

By TC (Class 1B)

Keeping Busy

Working really hard and creating some amazing Food Art!

By EN (Class 2G)

Geography Project

I turned 9 recently and this is the best homework I have ever had. I got to learn the composition of the Earth while eating my birthday cake. I can tell you now, out of all the Earth layers the mantle tastes best! Yummy!

By MS (Class 4B)

Rainbow Cake

IM-F wishes that she could share this rainbow cake with her teachers and friends!

We miss you lovely Larmenier & Sacred Heart

Baking!

A delicious cake, baked By MM (Class 3G)

The Amazing SPIDER-MAN!

In this pandemic, one morning, Spider-Man decided to stop by at ours.

He woke me up one morning and joined us for breakfast.

Helped with the Lego

and cooked our lunch.

Had lunch with us and...

then he dressed up again, and jumped on the shed roof, he said Hello and went away for another adventure.

Never saw him again

A Busy Week!

This week I've been running the daily mile challenge through Holland Park.

Making home-made ice cream 'Pan-n-Ice' style. 😊

I've also been keeping up with my jazz piano lessons via Zoom.

By TO'S (Class 6B)

Master Bakers!

LD (Class 6G) and JD (Class 6B) have been busy baking and decorating.
